British Tennis Membership

We encourage all members to join British Tennis via the LTA's website (www.lta.org.uk/britishtennismembership). Membership is free and helps the LTA to understand who is playing tennis in the UK. In addition, the LTA has decided that from now on the club's Wimbledon ballot will only be available to members of British Tennis and that the number of tickets available to a particular club will be proportional to the number of British Tennis members the club has.

Wimbledon

EBLTC receives an allocation of tickets for the Wimbledon Championships commencing on Monday 21st June 2010. This ballot is only available to those who are British Tennis members (see above). If you wish to be included in the draw for a pair of tickets, please tick the box below and state your BTM number. Membership fees, where applicable, must be received by 10/04/2010 to allow inclusion into the draw.

Please enter my name in the draw: British Tennis Membership number: _____

Please see our website (www.ebltc.org.uk) for details of our social tennis sessions. If you are a recent member (or just haven't played for a while) and would like an informal knock-around with a club member to get started or to get back into it, this can be arranged.

Please tick the box if you would like to be contacted by a member for an informal knock-around:
